

Grasslands Sefton is derived from a pool of genotypes collected as cores from attractive browntop patches on several golf courses through New Zealand and from the Royal Melbourne Golf Club, Australia

Characteristics

SEFTON is slightly finer and denser than Egmont, but noticeably more vigorous in horizontal growth. This makes it more competitive against weeds.

SEFTON is intended more for use in amenity specialist areas where a high standard of maintenance is applied.

Ratings

Density

Fineness

Colour

Close mowing tolerance

